

Contents

Icons	8
Chapter 1: Alternative approaches to negotiation	9
What is there to master?	10
So what is negotiation?	11
Argument?.....	12
Discussion?	13
Compromise?	13
Getting your own way?	13
Negotiation is, therefore.....	14
How we learn to negotiate	14
Alternative approaches	16
Compromise	16
Win/perceived win	16
Win/lose	17
Genuine win/win	17
You always have a choice	19
The characteristics of competitive and co-operative negotiation.....	19
The drive towards competitive negotiations	21
Summary and concluding remarks	24
Chapter 2: Mastering the planning stage	27
British Electronics: a case study	28
What is there to plan?	31
Task issues	31
Task issues: information.....	32
Task issues: tradables	35
Task issues: concession patterns	37
Task issues: power.....	39

2 MASTERING NEGOTIATIONS

Task issues: the first five minutes	41
Process issues: making best use of time	41
1. Exploration of options	42
2. Objectives	44
3. Common ground and long term perspective	45
4. Sequence planning	46
Process issues: co-operative negotiations	46
1. Interests	47
2. Options	48
3. Alternatives: the real power	49
4. Legitimacy	49
British Electronics: a solution to the case study	51
Genuine interests	51
Understanding the other side's genuine interests	51
Options	52
Common ground and long term perspectives	52
The negotiations proper	52
Summary and concluding remarks	54
Chapter 3: Mastering competitive negotiations	55
Why can't all negotiation be win/win?	56
The phases of competitive negotiation	57
The opening phase	59
The testing phase	64
The movement phase	68
The closing phase	69
Summary and concluding remarks	70

Chapter 4: Mastering co-operative negotiations	71
Why co-operative?	72
An alternative approach?.....	80
A strategy for finding trade-offs	80
Creating integrative agreements	81
Co-operative negotiations with problem people	81
Summary and concluding remarks	87
Chapter 5: Mastering persuasion	89
So why is persuasion important?	90
How do we persuade people?	91
Logical persuasion	92
Power and co-ercion	93
Compromise	95
Mutually advantageous concessions	97
Changing attitudes by the use of emotion.....	98
Understanding the other side's genuine objectives and motives	99
So what does this mean?	101
The skills of persuasion	101
Creating doubt	102
Creating movement	103
Common persuasion traps	105
Making quick counter proposals	105
Loose words	106
Inductive disagreement	107
Low responders	107
Timing.....	108
Persuasive behaviour	110
Summary and concluding remarks	111

4 MASTERING NEGOTIATIONS

Chapter 6: Mastering power in negotiation	113
Does power work in negotiation?	114
So what is power?	114
Perception	114
The power of authority.....	115
The power to reward	116
The power of coercion	116
Expert power	117
Connection power	117
The power of information	117
Charismatic power	118
The power to disrupt	118
Some surprising findings	119
Practical remedies for dealing with power	120
Power can always be created.....	120
The power of an alternative	121
Changing the package	122
Change the time frame.....	123
Exploit the information base.....	124
Changing of the source of power	124
Ignore it	125
Develop an irrational option	126
Put off the negotiation	127
Summary and concluding remarks	128
Chapter 7: Mastering commonly made mistakes in negotiation	129
Why concentrate on mistakes?	130
Control skills	131
Questions.....	131
Listening	133
Answers.....	135
Talk too much.....	136

Relationship skills	137
Receptive to ideas.....	137
Emotion.....	138
Words	139
Reading and using body language	141
Achievement	142
Predictability	142
Argument dilution	143
Like to be liked.....	144
Impression management.....	146
Summary and concluding remarks.	149
Chapter 8: Mastering non-verbal behaviour	151
Is there a body of fact behind body language?	152
Types of signal	156
The eight categories of non-verbal behaviour	157
Facial expressions	157
Gaze	158
Gestures	159
Posture	164
Contact	164
Proximity.....	165
Orientation	166
Appearance	167
Summary and concluding remarks	168