

Contents

Section 1:
Telephone tactics for customer satisfaction	3
The telecommunications revolution	4
The great telephone challenge	5
Creating a positive impression	6
Non-verbal communications	6
Reduced feedback	10
Quick solutions to common difficulties	11
Master the basics	12
People like people who sound... ..	12
How to create a positive physiology	13
How to change your voice	14
Effective telephone guidelines	17
Focus on the customer	17
When to answer the telephone	20
Helpful words and phrases	22
Unhelpful words and phrases	23
Don't ask people to call you back!	24
Prepare for telephone calls	26
Take notes	27
Be aware of time	28
Screen calls	28
Self-assessment	30

Advanced telephone rapport	30
Matching	30
Mismatching	32
General points about matching skills	32
Structuring a telephone call	34
Open and initiate	35
Gather information	35
Solutions and options	36
Confirm and close	37
Difficult situations	37
Telephone skills assessment	38
Gathering information – key skills	42
Listening and encouraging	42
Questioning	43
Turning customer problems into opportunities	44
How to turn problems into solutions	44
Handling customer questions	45
Structure for handling customer questions	47
Confirming – key skills	48
Difficult situations – key skills	49
Handling complaints	51
Remedy for complaints	51
Dealing with angry customers	52
Techniques	52
Handling conflict	55

Assertiveness on the telephone57
 Why people behave aggressively or submissively57
 Recognising assertive, submissive and aggressive behaviour58

Attitude59
 Your attitude is critical59
 An action plan for self-development61

Telephone skills – best practice summary62

Customer service – application assignments.....63

Section 2:
Gaining appointments by telephone67

The importance of proactive prospecting68

Sales is a numbers game69
 Filling the funnel71

The most important step in the sales process72
 Influencing tomorrow’s sales today73

Ten top tips on making appointments74

Making appointments: planning and preparation78
 Opening the call78
 Building interest and qualifying78

Overcoming objections	79
Handling objections	80
Closing the call	81
Setting objectives	82
Attitude and motivation	83
Every call counts	84
Failure is the essence of success	84
Getting past gatekeepers	84
Handling assistants – notes	88
How to structure a call	89
Introduction	89
Making progress	91
Effective capability statements – examples.....	92
Developing your own capability statements	93
Cold-calling blues	94
Reasons for cold-calling blues	95
Solutions to the cold-calling blues	96
‘Warm-calling’: A three-step method to increase your sales	97
Step 1: The target list	97
Define your ideal customer	98
Step 2: The letter	100
Step 3: The telephone call	101
Ideal appointment times	105
Example call.....	106
Prospect tracking	107
Appointments – application assignments.....	109

Section 3:
Achieving better sales results
on the telephone	113
How to get even better sales results	114
Qualities of a successful telemarketer	114
Personal qualities	114
The power of the telephone	115
Advantages and disadvantages of selling by telephone	116
Customer focus	117
Develop a positive customer attitude	117
Know your customer as well as your products	117
Know your product	118
Selling and customer service	118
Service	118
An introduction to selling on the telephone	119
Selling	119
Helping people buy	121
Structuring a sales call	124
Opening the sales call	124
Building the sale	124
Gaining commitment	125
Preparation, organisation and planning	126
The sales process – at a glance	126
The sales process	127
Why do people buy what they buy?	128
How people buy	129

Converting incoming calls into sales	130
Outgoing calls – working a list	132
1. Define your ideal customer	133
2. Develop a good ‘script’	133
3. Elimination	134
4. Persistence	134
Personal organisation	136
Prospect tracking	136
Organised persistence	137
Activities levels	138
Voice projection	140
Smile when you dial	141
Project a winning voice tone	141
Have excellent product knowledge	142
The sales call	142
Essentials	143
The voice that sells	143
The three V’s	143
Ways to improve the way you sound	144
Telephone sales questioning techniques	145
Features and benefits (FAB)	157
Feature statement. Facts	158
Advantage statement. Functions.....	158
So what is a benefit? Value.....	158

Developing FAB statements	159
People buy for different reasons	160
Matching	160
Selling benefits that need both emotional and logical needs	162
Handling objections and questions	162
Handling customer objections	162
How not to overcome objections	164
Overcoming objections	166
Sequence overview	166
Closing the sale	168
Why don't salespeople close?	169
What should a closing question be?	169
Examples of closing questions	171
Ending the call	172
Confirm agreement	172
Telephone selling – application assignments	173

Section 4:
Credit collection by telephone	177
Introduction	178
Calculating the real cost of bad debts	179
Why debtors don't pay	180
Prevention is better than cure	181
Credit management effectiveness	181
Credit risk assessment	183
Organising credit management	186
Follow-up procedures	186
Customer categories	189
Big debts – try to collect them first	190
Two top tips for effective cash collection	191
How to get people to pay	192
Collecting by telephone – preparation	195
Structuring a credit collection call	196
Types of question	197
Dealing with excuses	198
C.A.S.H – getting results on the telephone	200
How to deal with objections	201
Dealing with 'the cheque's in the post...'	203
Ten golden rules	204
Collection letters	204
Debt collection – application assignments	207